SANCTIONS ORDER BARRING DEBTOR FROM FILING FOR 1-YEAR

This matter coming to be heard on the Court’s Order Granting Trustee’s Motion to Dismiss Case and Ordering Debtor to Appear and Notice of Hearing (dkt. #11), that was duly served on pro se debtor, Patrick Gleason, and all other parties in interest (dkt. #14), for the Court to consider whether to impose a 1-year bar on bankruptcy filings as a sanction for Debtor’s intentional violation of the prior 180-day bar order, entered on May 21, 2021, in matter 21bk05181;

The Court finds and orders that:

1. Following service of the Order and Notice of Hearing, Mr. Gleason has failed to appear and object to the proposed sanctions;
2. Sanctions will be imposed as follows: Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 109(g), and 349(a), debtor Patrick Gleason, is barred from refileing a case under any chapter of the United States Bankruptcy Code for a period of 1-year from the date of the entry of this order;
3. The Clerk is directed to serve this order on the Debtor.

Dated: October 22, 2021
